

“The Girls in Their Summer Dresses”

Quiz

1. This setting for this story is:
  - a. New York City
  - b. The Brevoort Apartments
  - c. A bar
  - d. The Great Meeting Place

2. Michael’s and Frances’ relationship can best be described as:
  - a. happy
  - b. hateful
  - c. dishonest
  - d. strained

3. The majority of this story is written in:
  - a. dialogue form
  - b. stream of consciousness
  - c. narrative form
  - d. monologue form

4. Towards the end of the story when Frances says to Michael, “Someday, . . . you’re going to make a move,” the phrase “make a move” refers to:
  - a. Michael leaving the area of Fifth Avenue
  - b. Michael leaving Frances
  - c. Micheal going to another bar
  - d. Michael cheating on Frances

5. By the end of the story, one can predict that:
  - a. Michael and Frances will enjoy their time with the Stevensons
  - b. Michael’s and Frances’ marriage will not last
  - c. Frances will be the first person to leave the marriage
  - d. Happiness does not always lead to long-term relationships